

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES, STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Sachi A. Hamai, Executive Officer-
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors
383 Kenneth Hahn Hall of Administration
Los Angeles, California 90012

At its meeting held October 23, 2007, the Board took the following action:

27-D

Supervisor Antonovich made the following statement:

“The new Hertzberg-Davis Forensic Science Center, which was dedicated on May 11, 2007, will house the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department Scientific Services Bureau and the California State University Los Angeles’ School of Criminal Justice and Criminalistics, among others. This state-of-the-art Forensic Center will not only fully accommodate the needs of today but was designed and built to meet the growing demands of the future. The California State University Los Angeles has had a growing forensic science program, which has been a part of the school curriculum since the founding of the school in 1947.

“The joint tenancy and common interests of these agencies provides for a unique recruitment and employment opportunities that would prove mutually beneficial to the Sheriff’s Department and the students of the University.”

Therefore, on motion of Supervisor Antonovich, seconded by Supervisor Knabe, unanimously carried, the Chief Executive Officer was instructed to work with the Sheriff’s Department and California State University Los Angeles to explore the development of an internship program at the new Hertzberg-Davis Forensic Science Center and report back to the Board in three weeks.
